Re: United States v. Robert A. Fafard
Criminal No. 04-40027-FDS

Dear Mr. Black:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation this morning regarding discovery items you have not been able to locate, I am enclosing copies of the following: the search warrant, search warrant application, and search warrant return with an inventory and receipt.

You also asked about cassette tapes of recorded conversations. We provided you with 5 audio cassettes as enclosures to the January 11, 2005 discovery letter. I am happy to provide you with new copies if you cannot locate them. Please check the "A" side of the tape. There should be five tapes; the tapes are identified by the date on which they were made, as follows: 5/24/04; 6/3/04; 6/10/04; 7/8/04; and 8/10/04. Let me know which tape(s) you are missing. Note also, that the two June tapes contain only Fafard's voice on a voicemail recording.

Please call the undersigned at 508 368-0105, if you have questions.

Very truly yours,

MICHAEL J. SULLIVAN
United States Attorney
